ALL READY FOR

Initial Spring Meeting of Utah Jockey Club at Fair Grounds Track Tomorrow.

Everything is in perfect readiness for the opening of the first annual spring meeting of the Utah Jockey club tomormeeting of the Utah Jockey club tomornew afternoon at the fair grounds and keen interest and great enthusiasm among those interested in the sport of kings mark the final hours intervening until the bugler will call the ponies to the post for the opening dash. Although it seemed an almost impossible task to put the plant in its present remodeled and beautified condition when Manager W. W. Finn started his forces at work are or six weeks ago, the results of the work will be seen and appreciated by the great throngs that will pass through the great throngs that will pass through his gales tomorrow afternoon when they view the splendid racing plant that he had to work upon.

The sport will begin promptly at 2 oelock, when the first field of horses will be called to the post, but the grounds several hours earlier and it is grounds several hours earlier and it is estimated that no less than 6,000 persons will witness the opening day's sport. A most attractive card, featured by the Cullen handicap, has been arranged by Judge Pomeroy, acting as racing secretary, and horses of high class will race for the six purses offered. The complete entry list will be found elsewhere in these columns.

This forenoon was a busy period at the track, with the forces under the direction of Manager Finn putting on the mishing touches to make the racing plant complete and in accordance with his plans, with the orneal staff all on duty shaping their affairs for the busier times to come tomorrow and with horsemen flocking to the racing secretary's office to make cutry of their breadwinners in the various events on the card, The golony at the track makes up a small elty in point of population and overy one seemed unusually busy throughout the day.

THE RUSH FROM OGDEN. row afternoon at the fair grounds and

THE RUSH FROM OGDEN.

THE RUSH FROM OGDEN.

The rush of horsemen and their horses from Ogden began in earnest yesterday and has been keeping up at a steady rate all day, with others yet to dome after racing closes at the Janction City track this afternoon. Several prominent stables arrived yesterday, including that of Dr. II. E. Rowell, the Oakwood stock ranch, W. P. Maxwell and others. By midnight, every stall at the track and practically every one outside the grounds within a radius of half a mile will be filled. The number of horses shipped here for the meeting has so far exceeded all expectations of the management that, although additional stalls have been built twice since May 1, quite a a large number of horses are forced to seek accommodations, outside the grounds, the entire stabling capacity on the grounds having been taken more than a fortnight ago. In fact, the rush has kent up at such a rate that Manager Finn was forced to telegraph to hrosemen at all the Texas meetings that stable room was exhausted and request them not to ship here because already there are as many horses on the grounds as are desired.

The onening day card consists in six events and they are routed over varying distances from four furlongs to a mile and a sixteenth. The oness of horses entered is far better than that of horses that have raced here in other years and the sport should be exciting and interesting throughout the afternoon. The opening dash is at six furlongs and is followed by a 2-year-old soramble at half a mile. The older horses will go sive furlongs in the third race and then comes the Cullen handicap, the feature eyest, at six furlongs, in which the sest class of the day appears. A mile-fourney is fifth on the card and the day's sport will wind up with an overland trek at one and a sixteenth miles, this event being made for horses four years old and upwards. With clear sides and the course in its best condition.

STARTER DWYER HERE.

STARTER DWYER HERE.

Starter Dick Dwyer arrived yesterday from San Francisco and as he was pre-ceded several days by his assistants, who put the starting gates in order, all the track officials and employes now are here in readiness to assume the du-tles of their positions. Salt Lake City patrons of the sport will appreciate the starting of Dwyer and undoubtedly he will become equally as popular here as at other places where he has officiated will become equally as popular here as at other places where he has officiated in the many years he has been sending the fields away from the post. He is rated as the peerfess one in this position and his patience and determination to get every horse, be it a favorite or a 220 to 1 shot, away from the post on even terms explain his extreme popularity with the racegoing public.

Presiding Judge P. P. Pomeroy, who also fills the position of racing secretary and handicupper, with Associate Judge Jay Davidson and Clerk of the Scales W. B. Hayman have been working several hours each day at the track throughout the week, arranging the details of their positions and preparing for opering day.

It is the avowed intention of the officials of the jockey club to give the people of Salt Lake City such a high class, clean brand of racing that the sport will be thoroughly and permanently established and to make Salt Lake City a racing center of note, If their expectations of a successful season are realized, a modern racing plant, with a mile track will be begin without delay and will be ready for the spring meeting of next year.

ATHLETIC AWARDS.

(Special to the "News.") Provo. May 21.-At yesterday's student body meeting of the B. Y. U. the following awards were made in athletic contests:

To Samuel Baird, four state medals, three for first place in the state meet, in the high jump, the broad jump, the relay race. (Baird finished against Brinton to for U.), and one for second in the 20x yard dash; to Lawrence Epperson, Clarence Jones and Jesse Crosby, one medal each for relay race; to Lee Simmons, one medals for first place in the low hurdles; to Hugh Holdaway, one medal for first place in mile run; to medal for first place in mile run; to first place in 880-yard and 440-yard faces. Chamberlain, two medals for first place in 880-yard and 440-yard faces. Chamberlain holds state records for these events. Coach Bennion swarded the medals.

GOING TO RACES.

Those who go to the horse races tomor-is in automobiles and carriages have seen requested by J. T. Raleigh, super-atendent of streets, to use First North is the route because South Temple is one condition. North Temple is also a bad condition and therefore the advice to use First North.

OFFICIALS OF UTAH JOCKEY CLUB

The Utah Jockey club has a corps of apable executive officers. Leon B. Baketel is the official announcer of the club. This is a post peculiar to itself and an interesting one. After the finish of a race the judges O. K. the finish and then so inform Baketel. He forthwith repairs to the betting ring, and roars forth in stentorian voice, "All right, Boas win, Blagg second. Glorio third, All weighed in." Baketel is also secretary to the stewards. He stewards the prices in the betting ring. Baketel is a Salt Lake newspaperman, who for years occupied th post of nouncer at the Readville, Mass., trotting meetings, where his voice has sounded fame, fortune, and wealth for many a hazarding soul in the days gone bye.

Dr. C. P. Harveille, the official surgeon to the Utah Jockey club, is well known in Salt Lake City. He was graduated in medicine from Washington university, St. Louis, Mo., and immediately entered hospital service in that city. After becoming assistant to Dr. A. C. Ber-to assume charge of the Tintic hospital at Mammoth, Utah, at which place he is associated with Dr. Steele Bailey, Jr., of Kentucky. Dr. Harveille and his corps of assistants will maintain a hospital ward at the fair grounds in order to provide for emergency illness and accidents.

J. W. Hayman, the clerk of the scales, is one of the most popular officials on the turf. His position is a most important one. This post entails with it a great amount of precision and care. It is his duty to do all the weighing in of the jockeys and check off the weights cor-rectly before and after the race is run. He has been for 16 years upon the turf in one capacity or another.

Associate Judge Jay Davidson is without doubt one of the best known newspaper men in the southwest. He stands high in the community of sport and will no doubt serve with distinction as associate judge with P. P. Pomeroy. He resigned the position of sporting editor on the Los Angeles Herald to enter the professional life of turf officialdom

Twenty Schools Represented by Over 200 | CHAMPION GOTCH Boys in Tomorrow's State Track Meet

The annual state high school track meet tomorrow will be the greatest high school event ever pulled off in the state. Twenty high schools have entered the meet and there will be in all, over 200 contestants. The success of the meet is due largely to the efforts of Coach Maddock and the University athletic council in working up enthusiasm among the schools of various parts of the state. The State University is put to considerable expense for this event each year. The expenses of the contestants while in the city and the money for purchase of trophles for winning contestants all come from the University athletic fund. Three prizes are awarded to the winners in every event, silver medil, bronze medal and blue ribbon. The school scoring the lighest number of points is awarded the big silver cup. The cup has been won by Ogden high school, the last two years.

In former meets it has always been one-sided in favor of Ogden and Salt Lake schools, but this will be everybody's meet. Many of the country lads

Sylvan Park Cup Race Captured by Mike Jordan in Good Time at Ogden Race Meet

The attendance at yesterday's Ogden races showed a marked increase. The plendid program and the excellent card arranged by Manager Murray attracted a big string of turfmen to the track. The feature was the winning of the Sylvan Park cup event by Mike Jordan. Until the stretch was reached it was anybody's race but here. Mike forged ahead and nosed out a winner. The program for the final day is a good one and tomorrow many of the fast horses will come here from the Junction City.

About 200 Entries for Big Annual

Bench Show Already Listed and Many More Are Coming.

Salt Lake City is going to the dogs! This is not a knock although it's a fact, and just when this town is going to the bow wows is three days next week, May 27, 28 and 25, and the place is week, May 27, 28 and 25, and the place is 47 west First South street.

The Utah Kennel club's annual bench show takes place on those dates and that it will be a big success is practically assured already. Those in charge of the affair declare it will be the biggest and best show ever given by the local club of dog fanciers and they know whereof they speak. Up to last evening there were more than 200 entries listed, and the dogs, whose names are on the official sheets, are among the very best in the country. Dogs are coming from neighboring states and every effort is being made to make the exhibition a three-point show. There will be dogs of about every known variety from the vest pocket edition to the freight car style.

Dr. J. W. Gray will be superintendent of the show. He will come here from Chicago to decide whose dog is who and why and will then go to the coast where he will officiate in San Francisco. Howard H. Don, secretary of the show, is about the busiest mortal in the city and he certainly has his hands full arranging for this, that and the other thing, to assure satisfaction from all quarters. If the show is not a big success it will not be the fault of the local Kennel club.

THREE MORE BIKE RIDERS ARE DUE HERE NEXT WEEK

Manager Harry Heagren of the Salt Palace saucer track received a wire this morning from Walter Bardgett, who is now in Los Angeles, that three riders would leave that city Monday morning next for Salt Lake and would at once go into training for the summer racing here. The men who are coming are Lawson, Walker and Krebs. Several others will leave there in a few days. Heagren is receiving letters of inquiry from riders all over the country and that he will have an abundance of material this summer is a certainty. It is generally predicted by those who know the game that there will be better competition at the saucer this summer than ever before. Manager Harry Heagren of the Salt

SHAMROCK III CONDEMNED.

New York, May 21.—Shamrock III, Sir Thomas Lipton's cutter, which carried Thrown From Bridge.

Freat Mat Artist Throws Four Men in Short Order-Hissed and Jeered For Doing as Requested. Harry Heagren certainly pulled off a good thing last evening when he pre-sented to about 3,000 persons in the arena at the Salt Palace, Frank A. Gotch, champion wrestler of the world. The reeption accorded the champion was not what it should have been. His appearance on the platform during the oratorance on the platform during the oratorical introduction by Williard Bean was the signal for applause and cheers, but when the champion put a toc hold on Mike Yokel the cheers were turned to hisses, jeers, groans and calling of names, a feature which was by no means justified. He was hissed because he did what was expected of him. Since Heagren announced the coming of the champion the announcement was made scores of times that he would show Sait Lakers his femous toe hold, a hold which has placed him in first place among world's athletes. Had he not used it the crowd would have been "sore." If those has placed him in first place among world's athletes. Had he not used it the crowd would have been "sore." If those who went against him expected to be treated like sick infants they were very much mistaken. He came here agreeing to throw four men within a limited time and there was not a word said about barring the toe hold. Gotch heard the crowd demand him to show the famous bone-twister and naturally he decided to use it on Yokel, because the latter was the best of the four men and knows a great deal about the game.

"Big Bill" Rishel, who acted as referee, stated that Yokel said to him. "He's got me," and then Gotch said, "roll over on your shoulders," and Yokel had to do it to avoid punishment.

Gotch said:
"I heard the people sailing for the Third race, three furlongs, selling, 2-year-olds—Eel, Kirschbaum, 4 to 5, won; Good Ship, Smith, 7 to 5, second; Miles, Shriner, 10 to 1, third, Time—364-45, Eel dashed to front, leading all way, was no contest. scatted that Tokel said to him. 'He's got me," and then Gotch said, "roll over on your shoulders," and Yokel had to do it to avoid punishment.

Gotch said:

"I heard the people calling for the toe hold. I knew that your advance press notices had said that I would use it. I knew that Yokel was the best man I would meet and to show the effectiveness of the hold I used it on him. Then I was hissed for the first time in America. I did not like it. I am used to being treated like a gentleman, and if this is the sort of treatment I am to get I shall refuse to give any further exhibition."

Yokel declared he was not seriously hurt; that it was all right, to be expected, and "all in the game."

The match was not without interest, and amusing features.

It begins to look as though the man who is to throw Frank Gotch is not in America, nor yet in Europe—unless, perchance, some big Turk, like the original Yousif, will come out of hie dark and carry the belt back with him.

Gotch toyed with his opponents as a lion might with a kitten and when he was ready to put their shoulders to the mat he did it. Ed Ferguson of Ogden showed considerable strength and gameness and Gotch let him stay a trifle over soven minutes. There was plenty of fun when "Whiskers' Devonivich appeared. Gotch created a roar by grabbing for a "whiskers hold" and then kept the crowd laughing by holding Devonivich with one hand while he tickled him with the other. Rose of the Y. M. C. A. came next and Gotch made short work of him, putting him down in less than a minute. Yokel was last and Gotch started in to do business. The local wrestier displayed rare cleverness in breaking several holds and getting out of difficult places. Once he got away from the toe hold but when the champion got it again of course Yokel had to surrender. From the mat he shook hands with Gotch and then limped to his dressing room. Later the lameness disappeared and Yokel appeared to be all right.

Gotch leaves Salt Lake today. He has practically fuished the present tour and says he h Friar of Eigin. Severus and Disara assoran.

Boston, May 21.—Big Ed Reulbach, for McIntyre of Brooklyn, is the latest rumor of trades now circulating through the camp of the Chicago Nationals. Pressident Murphy is named as the official behind the deal which may send the celebrated wild man across the Brooklyn bridge in exchange for Lumley's mighty righthander.

Reulbach has been unable to acquire anything like ordinary control thus far in the season, and Chance is said to be strongly in favor of the proposed change. Murphy and Ebbets have the matter under advisement.

ROAD RACE ENTRIES.

Manager Hugh Rippeto of the Decoration day road race to Lagoon stated this morning that he had received five more entries for the big annual event. The entries will close on May 26. Arrangements have been made for a special train to run over the course, leaving here at 11:30 s. m. on Monday, May II.
